About Section:

In the header section the language needs to be in the center on the left side instead of being spread out to the stock photo.

Innovative Platinum Solutions was established in 2016 to serve as a strategic resource and guide to help business owners large and small become profitable, legal, and competitive in today's changing business climate. Sierra M. Adams, the company's founder, founded it after noticing how many small companies were being turned down for government contracts because their businesses were not properly set up.

Innovative Platinum Solutions first served a client in Belgium in 2017, and it has since expanded its services globally. Regardless of the industry, our goal is to be the business owner's right hand by assisting them in the growth, operation, and long-term survival of a long-term enterprise.

Every case benefit from our vast expertise and professionalism, and we tailor our assistance to your specific needs and concerns.

We keep our focus on the new technology and techniques, and we've followed their evolution to direct our technical approaches—all in the hopes of providing you with excellent guidance that will last for years.

BUSINESS FORMATION

There are several types of business formation, and each one has its own advantages and disadvantages. The four main types of business formation are: sole proprietor, limited liability company, partnership, and corporation. We strive to assist startups and existing businesses with identifying which formation best suits your business need to establish.

BUSINESS PLANNING

Business planning is a long term set of competitive decisions and actions that a business uses to attract customers and compete successfully.

BUSINESS VENDOR REGISTRATION

Vendor registration can be a daunting task. Sometimes when working with a third-party, you have to be very careful in filling up any forms. In another case, you are the party.

STRATEGIC SOURCING

Margins are becoming increasingly thin in today's rapidly evolving market, making it more difficult to maintain a company.

BUSINESS PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

Companies are turning to Innovation Platinum Solutions' Business Performance Services for realistic advice and assistance as they aim to boost their performance.

GOVERNMENT CONTRACTS & FUNDING

If you are interested in government contracts and funding opportunities, Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC is here to assist.

BUSINESS FORMATION PAGE

Forming a company depends on many factors. People who are new to the business usually lack the basic concept of business formation. Therefore, Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC. is here to help you understand the process and go smoothly with it. The legal shape of a corporation that is chosen may affect every aspect of daily business. In deciding on whether to create a specific ownership, limited liability company, association, or organization, we assist entrepreneurs and small businesses.

To form your company in other countries or qualify, you need the simplest, most cost-effective business formation programs, so that you can do business the right away. With an extensive knowledge of country-specific corporate rules and regulations, our global expert network will assist you in forming and qualifying your company abroad without delay.

In your field, Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC will assist entrepreneurs and small businesses in creating a limited liability company, corporation, or other similar business entities. To properly shape and manage your business organizations, we can prepare internal documentation and file the necessary documents with the Secretary of State. By registering your business company, you can protect your assets, gain tax benefits, and expand your business.

Business Performance Management

Companies are turning to Innovation Platinum Solutions, LLC.'s Business Performance Services for realistic advice and assistance as they aim to boost their performance, add sustainable value, reduce risk, and remove strategic and organizational blind spots.

Rather than seizing today's opportunities, many businesses are still looking for solutions to yesterday's problems. Regrettably, this is right. As a result, more businesses are turning to our Business Performance Services division for a new and realistic perspective on their real issues.

The Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC., a leading global strategy and operations consulting company, will help you get the most out of a planned or ongoing business performance management deployment. Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC., is also the perfect partner for introducing a new business performance management system or driving greater productivity and effectiveness in an existing one, thanks to our extensive experience and expertise in business benchmarking, operations and technology best practices, and change management. Therefore, if you want to take advantage of our services, just give us a call and let us take over from where your experience has left you in a fix.

Business Vendor Registration

Vendor registration can be a daunting task. Sometimes when working with a third-party, you have to be very careful in completing any forms. In another case, you are the party, and you are binding contracts with the vendors of third-party, so you have to watch out for their authenticity too. We offer robust solutions for your firm to have the vendor registration process go smoothly in both cases.

Besides, you require to register your business with the state authority too. You will inform your business and your goods and services when you submit your vendor application to a public industry organization. When the procurement department is about to purchase something and searches for a commodity list, they can see the name of the business if the product or service is offered. This means they know you are delivering the product, and they will contact the company when you need to purchase the product or service in question. To make sure that you get your business registration with authenticity, we offer full-time business vendor registration services. You can contact the team and now get the process started before going out in the market.

Government Contracts & Funding

Are you interested in government contracts and funding?

If you are interested in securing government contracts, Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC is here to assist to lead the way. Our goal is to assist companies to secure and be contract ready with the government without any hassles. The steps may be daunting and take plenty of your time to understand. Therefore, if you seek assistance, we make sure that you're in position to secure contracts and funding with the government to go smoothly with all the perfect clauses being a part of it.

We assist businesses that do business with the government in identifying and enforcing complex accounting and finance regulations so that they can complete government contracts effectively and profitably while reducing the risk of non-compliance. We combine our regulatory knowledge with our vast financial and accounting experience and skills to create new methods and strategies for compliance with government contracting regulations. So, you don't have to deal with these long processes of government contracts and deal with the financing challenges. If you need funding from the government for your start-up business or charity organization, we can create the application on your behalf and complete the process as well.

We at Innovative Platinum Solutions have better and proven ways to help you with all.

Proofreading and Editing

We maintain in-house quality protocols and carefully examine our editors to ensure the highest standard of service. To ensure this, all of our editors have extensive education and experience in proofreading and editing the written material. Our editors specialize in proofreading a wide range of business documents, including company/commercial documents and other types of content.

We gather your requirements, inspect the documents in detail and see if any business requirements are not met; we will highlight them. Our editors are not just writers; they are business professionals and have a full grip on the business documents and other types of content.

Our writers' expertise helps us to ensure that your work is free of not only spelling and grammatical errors, but also grammar and sentence structure, as well as recommend changes and suggestions that are important to the nature of your work.

We have partnered with educational institutions, government agencies, small companies, and big corporations. You may be reassured that you will obtain a high-quality, skilled, and personalized service from us. We review the material and work with you to ensure that all the documents are completely error-free.

Strategic Sourcing

Margins are becoming increasingly thin in today's rapidly evolving market, making it more difficult to maintain a company. Also, some multinational companies are struggling due to a lack of a strategic procurement plan that suits their supply chain requirements and economies-of-scale capabilities. This has necessitated the hiring of strategic sourcing consultants to examine your company and formulate a long-term strategy.

We at Innovative Platinum Solutions, LLC will help you with any aspect of your procurement project, whether you need tools, subject matter knowledge, technical solutions, or access to vital market data. Benchmarking against the competition, supplier discovery and rationalization, RFX management, contracting and negotiations, and procurement process enhancement, including Source-to-Contract and Procure-to-Pay strategies, are all part of our Strategic Sourcing consulting services.

Our consultants understand that you need to be moving in the right direction. Therefore, our consultants offer you a wide spectrum of experience that has helped them rise to the top of their profession as leaders who continually improve their strategies to provide you with the best results possible.
